Part XIII Supplemental Information

The Liberty School is exempt from income tax as provided under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except on net income derived from unrelated business activities. The School adopted accounting requirements that prescribe when to recognize and how to measure the financial statement effects of income tax positions taken or expected to be taken on its income tax returns, including the position that the School continues to qualify to be treated as a tax-exempt organization for both federal and state income tax purposes. These rules require management to evaluate the likelihood that, upon examination by relevant taxing jurisdictions, those income tax positions would be sustained. Based on that evaluation, if it were more than 50% probable that a material amount of income tax would be imposed at the entity level upon examination by the relevant taxing authorities, a liability would be recognized in the accompanying balance sheet along with any interest and penalties that would result from that assessment. Based on the results of management's evaluation, the requirements did not have a material effect on the School's financial statements. Consequently, no liability is recognized in the accompanying statement of financial position for uncertain income tax positions. The School's federal returns (Form 990 and 990-T) are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service generally for three years after they are filed. Should any penalties and interest be incurred, they would be recognized as management and general expenses.

Schedule D (Form 990) 2023
